who may be living at her death, such descendants to take the same share or portion their respective parent would have taken has she survided, and the same to be divided equally among my said daughters children, and their descendants, Per Stirpes, share and share alike, I do not by the above beweest in trust, for my daughters Mary's use and benefit intend in any way upon my said daughter, to cast reflections but in said bequest I intend to provide for the comfort and maintenance of my said daughter in all circumstances.

I give and bequeath to my grand children Charles Byerly, Mary K. Fyerly, Harriet Walker, Mable Detrick and Sophia Detrick all my shares of stock in the Farmers and Mechanics National Bank of Frederick, to be divided equally among them share and share alike.

A portion of the rest and residue of my estate consists of what are commonly called ground rents in the City of Baltimore, I consider all of my said investments safe and judicious, and I do therefore recommend to my children and to the trustees of the share or portion left in trust for my daughter Mary, that they divide said ground rents among them at the respective apprainsed valuations thereof, and keep the same as safe investments. And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my son-in-law, Tames h. Walker, and my friend W. Irving Parsons, to be the executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me at any time heretofore made and confirmed this and none other as and for my last will, and I do hereby request the Orphans' Court of Frederick County not to require bond of my said executors or the survivor of them.

The word chaldren interlined in sixth line from bottom on this page before signing. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 16th day of July 1897.

George Markell. (Seal)
